Re: Dorn v. Eddington Security, Inc., et al.
Civil Action No. 08-10271 (LTS)(HP)

Dear Judge Swain:

We represent Defendants Eddington Security, Inc. and Mark Eddington ("Eddington Defendants"). We write to advise Your Honor of the status of this action and to request that we use the scheduled conference on April 9, 2010 to discuss issues arising out of the mediation conducted on March 16, 2010 with the Eddington Defendants and Plaintiffs. Please be advised that counsel for Plaintiffs, Justin M. Swartz, Esq. of Outten & Golden, LLP, joins this request.

In particular, on April 9th, we would like to introduce the framework for settlement that was discussed at the mediation between the Eddington Defendants and Plaintiffs. Because the framework is not conventional, we believe it would be appropriate to obtain the benefit of Your Honor's reaction to same before we proceed further.

Moreover, because of the ongoing settlement discussions between the Eddington Defendants and Plaintiffs, on April 9th we would like to address certain deadlines set forth in the Court's Order of November 13, 2009, including, but not limited to, the March 30, 2010 deadline for class or collective action motion practice.

Lastly, please be advised that I have oral argument in the Second Circuit at 10:00 a.m. on April 9th (the same time as the conference in this action). I have confirmed that all counsel are available after 1:00 p.m. on April 9th for the conference. Accordingly, because of my scheduling conflict, if Your Honor's schedule permits, we request a new time on April 9th - any time after 1:00 p.m. - for our conference.

Mr. Swartz and I will be available at Your Honor's earliest convenience to discuss the above.

Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM H. HEALEY

Justin M. Swartz, Esq. (via facsimile)

The conference is adjourned to 2:30pm on April 9, 2010.

SO ORDERED.
